WHY?

- More people are being placed into housing than ever before
- Strategies have been developed, more resources deployed, and we’re starting to see results

Adjusted estimates resubmitted to HUD
2018 HOMELESS COUNT RESULTS

PEOPLE EXPERIENCING HOMELESSNESS

City of Los Angeles
31,285
6% Decrease

County of Los Angeles
52,765
4% Decrease

The LA CoC total number was 49,955, a 5% decrease from 2017. The LA CoC is Los Angeles County excluding Glendale, Pasadena, & Long Beach CoCs.
Strategic efforts to address homelessness are beginning to make an impact.
More people are moving into homes

2017 was the highest year to date

The HMIS data system transition caused a temporary disruption in data collection during 2017, resulting in fewer housing placements recorded in the data system. Researchers Dennis Culhane and Stephen Metraux used an historical statistical model to estimate that the total number of housing placements was 18,223.

What’s Working:
- Created new supportive and rapid re-housing resources
- Expanded landlord incentive programs
- Expanded move-in financial assistance

LA’s Plan Moving Forward:
- Adding housing location services
- Linking affordable housing to the Coordinated Entry System
- Launching Shallow Subsidy program
- Implementing Year 2 of Proposition HHH and Measure H to create more housing

Housing Placements
LA CoC*, 2015 - 2017

2015: 10,917
2016: 14,214

Veteran homelessness decreased 19%

Dedicated resources, continued hard work, local leadership

What’s Working:
- Established a Countywide Veterans Benefit Advocacy Program
- Redesigned VA programs to target chronically homeless Veterans
- Enhanced direct-service staff collaboration
- Coordinated VA housing resources through the Coordinated Entry System

LA’s Plan Moving Forward:
- Continuing to strengthen system collaboration between VA and the Coordinated Entry System
- Adding 800+ Veteran-specific supportive housing units
- Allocating $20 million countywide to house Veterans experiencing mental health issues
- Creating countywide Veteran Peer Support Network

However, the economic factors driving people into homelessness persist
Los Angeles has a growing affordable housing crisis

Los Angeles County needs over 565,000 new affordable housing units for low income renters—16,000 more than the previous year.

Since 2000, median rent in Los Angeles County has increased 32% while median renter household income has decreased 3%*

Los Angeles County has the highest poverty rate across all counties in the state at nearly 25%

When accounting for housing costs and cost-of-living, California has the highest poverty rate in the country at over 20%

California Poverty Measure (CPM), a measure developed by the Public Policy Institute of California (PPIC) and the Stanford Center on Poverty and Inequality, average poverty rates from 2013-2015

US Census Bureau Supplemental Poverty Measure (SPM), average poverty rates from 2014-2016
More people are falling into homelessness for the first time

46% of the 9,205 people experiencing homelessness for the first time said it was due to a loss of employment or other financial reasons.

Current Strategies:
- Expanded family homelessness prevention services
- Launched youth and adult prevention services
- Targeted services to people exiting jails, foster care, and hospitals who would otherwise become homeless
- Supporting the development and preservation of affordable housing

LA’s Plan Moving Forward:
- Launching prevention pilot in a high-eviction neighborhood
- Expanding services for people at-risk of experiencing homelessness
- Creating new affordable housing
